New World Energetics - Connecting You With Your Energy In A Whole New Way

How does this Energetics Toolkit work together and how do you create a Practice Plan for me?

This Energetics Toolkit has been designed using wisdom both ancient and modern, and connects together with self-teaching, recursive loops because your Personal Energy Field is structured that way.

This simply means that all the tools are designed to connect you with your Personal Energy Field, learn more about it, connect with your Inner Wisdom and discover your own preferred methods of Spiritual Practice.

My vision and my belief is that we can all re-member and learn how to manage our Personal Energy by ourselves. Self-management of Personal Energy is both an evolutionary leap forward and an amazing journey in Personal Development.

If you are interested in joining a community to learn more about my approach, I also have a Facebook Page called Mom On A Spiritual Journey which connects to my blog of the same name You are welcome to join the community on the Facebook page or via Blogfrog to post questions, comments and suggestions there and read the latest discussions and comments.

Opening to a fuller awareness of our Personal Energy Fields and the potentials they hold for Personal Growth is an amazing journey many of us are taking at this time. Welcome to the journey!

Feel free to contact me if you would like to arrange an Online Session.

Please note: I am an Essential Oil Intuitive but currently do not practice as a Flower Essence Consultant and I am not a homeopath. However, often intuitively remedies are suggested to help clear energy flow. Please take these simply as suggestions. If you feel guided to do so, then a practitioner from these fields may be helpful for you as part of your journey.*
